The Rug - In the Making

If anyone has any old camouflage T-Shirts they would like to donate, we know someone who will make good use of them. Maureen Hamilton is busy working on a special round hooked rug. The color scheme of the rug follows the colors included in camouflage fabric.

Maureen was at the Sundown UMC Ladies Yard Sale on Saturday. She didn't waste a moment. She was either cutting strips for this masterpiece, or working on the rug.

The rug not only will have a woody feel, but will also have a history of all those who donated camouflage T-Shirts.

When completed the rug and its story will go on sale at the Sundown UMC Weekend Indoor Yard Sale.

As you can see by the photo, Maureen has made quite a bit of progress since starting this project a little over two weeks ago. She told us that so far 14 T-Shirts are woven into the rug.

Maureen has been making hooked rugs for the past 4. Her mentor, Gladys VanWagner who over the years gained a reputation for her hooked rugs, as well as the chair pads that you will still see on the chairs in the Sundown Church Hall. (Contd. Pg. 4)

Second Graders Receive Books from Monticello Kiwanis Club

The Monticello Kiwanis Club recently delivered books to eleven second grade classes at the George L. Cooke Elementary School. During the school year, the students were introduced to reading books with chapters so they were very excited when they were advised that the Kiwanis Club was presenting each one of them with a chapter book for their summer reading pleasure. The teachers were all very happy and grateful as well. The students were encouraged to read out loud to their friends and family members as well as for the enjoyment of their pets. Doris Motl, retired Rutherford Elementary School teacher and Kiwanis member, organized this event. (Contd. Pg. 4)

DAYS OF YORE □. Today's History

July 15, 1953

The annual meeting of the religious Society of Friends was held Sunday at 1 o'clock at the historic Quaker Meeting House above Grahamsville. This was an unprogrammed meeting as is the custom. Printed cards left on the benches explained that worship in the House of Friends is entirely without human direction or supervision.

Charles M. Huntsberger, 76, died Tuesday at Brooks Mountain, Sundown. The son of John M. and Martha Payden Huntsberger, he was born August 14, 1876 at Dillsburgh, Pennsylvania. Mr. had been a resident of Sundown since his marriage to Ida Du Bois nineteen years ago. Surviving are his widow and one son, Jack of Grahamsville.

July 10, 1963

Mr. and Mrs. Albro Brown Jr. are the parents of a son, Clayton Barrett, born July 4th at Hamilton Av. Hosp. He weighed in at 4 lbs. 8 oz.

Mr. and Mrs. William Morrissey of RFD Callicoon are the parents of a daughter born July 7th at Callicoon Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Morrissey were both former members of the Tri Valley Central School faculty.

Archibald F. Armstrong, 79, died on July 6th at Mary Imogene Bassett Hospital, Cooperstown after a long illness. He was born on October 5, 1883 at Eureka, the son of Philip and Amanda J. Smith Armstrong. He was married February 11, 1962 at Liberty Mae Whittaker who survives him.

Miss Ruth E. Kile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. Kile of Woodbourne, became the bride of Kevin F. McKeon, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. McKeon of Upper Ferndale Road, Liberty on June 30th. The Rev. Richard Leuckle performed the ceremony at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, Woodbourne. After a wedding trip to the New England states the couple will reside in Divine Corners.

July 25, 1973

Bessie Coddington, 85, of Sundown, died Thursday at her home. Born October 15, 1887 in Neversink, she was the daughter of Frederick and Lizzie Bloxhanson Countryman and wife of the late John Coddington who died in 1958. She lived in Sundown for 65 years. She is survived by a son, Earl of Sundown; three daughters: Flossie VanWagner of Sundown, Elizabeth Rose of Grahamsville and Mrs. Hazel Hopps of Paupack, Pa.; 12 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren.

July 14, 1983

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Inghrim, McGuire Rd., Neversink, announce the engagement of their daughter, Virginia, to Richard J. Bischert Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Bischert Sr., Burnt Ridge Road, Bradley. Miss Inghrim is a graduate of Tri-Valley Central School and SUNY Delhi. She is now attending Franklin University in Columbus, Ohio. Her fiancé graduated from Tri-Valley Central School. He is now attending DeVry Institute of Technology in Columbus, Ohio. Wedding plans are incomplete.

A bit of humor from Tom Higgins:

Your tax dollars at work - Officials at Langley Air Force Base in Virginia have converted a 20 foot cannon into a chicken gun that hurls dead chickens at airplanes at 700 mph hoping to find a way to reduce accidents caused by jets hitting birds.

The chicken gun shoots 4 pound chickens into engines, windshields and landing gear to determine how much damage is caused. (Probably where Frank Perdue's rejects wind up!)

LOOKING BACK

by Beatrice Akerley
July 11, 1996

'While sitting here in my rocking chair trying to recall something of interest to write about, I was startled by a fluttering on my window. It was a small bird fighting its reflection in the glass. It persisted in its fruitless effort for several minutes fluttering against the window again and again. Finally, feeling sorry for the little bird, I told it that it was wasting its energy fighting itself. I closed the curtain and it flew away, leaving me with something to write about.

I too have been fighting with myself. Old age, high blood pressure, heart failure, a fruitless struggle. I decided to pull the curtain on this low point in my life and renew my faith in God and have confidence that God will lead me into a bright and happy future.

Grand Opening of the Old Stone House of Hasbrouck Inc.

Celebrating the Restoration of a Historic Building and Community Center The Old Stone House of Hasbrouck Inc. is pleased to announce the grand opening of its newly restored historic building and community center on July 16, 2023. The event will take place between 1:00 PM and 4:00 PM and promises to be an exciting day filled with local artists, activities for youth and seniors, a BBQ, and live entertainment featuring Ellie the Clown and Jesse Noren.

There will be craft and art demos in the house along with an art exhibit/open studio by David Munford.

Joe Comando will offer a demo of HEMA(Historical European Martial Arts).

The grand opening event will be a testament to the vibrant spirit of our community. Local artists will showcase their exceptional talents, with art exhibitions and interactive displays throughout the building. Visitors of all ages will have the opportunity to engage in various activities specially designed for youth and seniors, fostering intergenerational connections and a sense of unity.

Attendees will be treated to a barbecue, offering an assortment of grilled delights for a donation of $15 per person.

To purchase BBQ tickets in advance or inquire about further details, please contact: The Old Stone House of Hasbrouck, Inc., a 501'3 Non-Profit Organization — The Old Stone House of Hasbrouck, Inc., a 501'3 Non-Profit Organization Elizabeth Kolansky, Secretary 845-807-6446 lizstudio42@gmail.com

Bright Red Bee Balm

It is that time of the year again when the tall bee balm with their vivacious red flowers that attract the hummingbirds are in bloom. Bee balm is easily recognized and grows quite well in full sun where the soil is moist, yet well drained. Bee balm will grow in shade, and will spread rapidly, but will not produce abundant flowers.

The individual flowers are narrowly tube-shaped, tightly clustered together in 2 in. heads and set atop a square stem. The stem is lined with large dark green oval leaves that have a minty aroma. Hummingbirds, butterflies, and bees are attracted to the blossoms.

Bee Balm is a member of the mint family.

The scientific name, Monarda, came from Nicolas Monardes, who wrote a book in 1574 describing plants found in the New World, included Monarda.

Bee Balm, is also known as Bergamot, or Monarda. It can grow to over five feet tall.

Quoted from the book, Our Friend John Burroughs, states, "I shall long remember the enticing stream, the pretty cascades, the high shelving rocks sheltering the mossy nest of the phoebe, and the glowing masses of bee balm blooming beside the stream; yes, and the eagerness of one of the fisherman as he slipped along ahead of me, dropping his hook into the pools. Occasionally he would relinquish the rod, putting it into my hands with a rare self-denial as we came to a promising pool; but I was more deft at gathering bee balm than taking trout, and willingly spared the rod to the eager angler."

Burroughs did frequent Sundown and fished in the Rondout — maybe he was in our back yard!

Today bee balm has even found its way into the florist's shop. Definitely a Catskill Mountain prize, this beautiful red blossomed flower certainly has a long history that surely goes back long before John Burroughs or Nicolas Monardes. Native Americans, including the Blackfoot, Menominee, Ojibwa and Winnebago knew the wonderful properties of this plant. The Blackfoot Indians recognized the strong antiseptic action of bee balm and used poultices of the plant for skin infections and minor wounds. Bee balm is the natural source of the antiseptic Thymol, the primary active ingredient in modern commercial mouthwash formulas. The Winnebago used a tisane made from bee balm as a general stimulant. Bee balm was also used as a carminative herb by Native Americans to treat excessive flatulence. An infusion of crushed Bee Balm was used to treat headaches and fevers. The native's of this land had their own name for this outstanding plant, they called it Oswega tea!

The Rug - In the Making

(From Pg. 1) We will keep you up-to-date on Maureen's progress. Most likely you will see Maureen and The Rug at the Sundown UMC Ladies Weekend Yard Sale, except on Saturdays when the Grahamsville Thrift Sale is happening.

Maureen, who is very talented and creative, is a busy community-minded lady who not only is a volunteer at the church Thrift Sales and Yard Sales, but is also known for her tasty homemade jams and jellies and flavored local honey. Maureen and her husband keep their own bee hives, and they are the proud owners of Rooftop Honey where you can purchase a variety of flavors of delicious healthy local honey. You can purchase Maureen's tasty jams and jellies at the Sundown UMC Ladies Thrift Sale.

Stop by and say, hello to Maureen at the Grahamsville Thrift Sale or the Sundown UMC Ladies Indoor Yard Sale. And if you happen to have a camouflage T-shirt you would like to donate, please bring it and Maureen will add your name to the history of The Rug.

Second Graders Receive Books from Monticello Kiwanis Club

(From Pg. 1) She was accompanied by Jane Sorensen, EPIC Family Engagement Program Manager and Past Distinguished President of Monticello Kiwanis Club.

This project fits perfectly with the Kiwanis mission of improving the world one child and one community at a time. The Monticello Kiwanis Club meets the first Monday of the Month at Albella's Restaurant. For further information, visit Monticello NY Kiwanis Club Facebook Page.

Workplace Wellness Event on July 21

LIBERTY, NY: Sullivan County's Public Health Essentials Team comprised of representatives from Action Toward Independence, Cornell Cooperative Extension of Sullivan County and Sullivan 180, have planned a Workplace Wellness event for local agencies and non-profits.

Under the guidance of facilitator Cheyanna Frost, the Program Manager for Public Workforce Development at Cornell University, the team has previously organized an MLK Day of Service event that had 80 students. Now, the attention will shift to fellow service providers. The team decided to provide tools and information that can help change dynamics in the workplace for positive outcomes.

On July 21 at Cornell Cooperative, 64 Ferndale Loomis Road in Liberty, the team is sponsoring The Leadership Empowerment Workshop which will focus on workplace wellness and how to create a healthier work environment. The workshop begins at 11:30 a.m., and runs through 3:30 p.m. The day includes modules on Worksite Culture, Worksite Wellness, and a Lunch and Learn forum packed with activities. The program will also feature a special guest presenter, author Shar McBee, who will provide a presentation on her book To Lead is To Empower.

Our leaders have struggled with staffing issues, fatigue, and increased workload, noted Deborah Worden, Executive Director of Action Toward Independence. The goal is building resiliency in our local leadership and showing the power they possess to make positive changes. For more information, call Action Toward Independence at 845-794-4228 or Sullivan 180 at 845-295-2680

Registration is required at https://pub.cce.cornell.edu/event_registration/main/events.cfm?dept=248

Mysterious Book Report No. 376

by John Dwaine McKenna

Charlie 316, (Down & Out Books, PB, $18.95, 398 pages, ISBN 978-1-948235-68-6) by Colin Conway & Frank Zafrino, is an electrifying and propulsive police procedural that takes place in Spokane, Washington . . . out near the Idaho state line. It combines elements of race, heroism, crime, treachery, violence and murder into a tale that you just can't stop reading because there's no end to the plot twists and turns. They keep on coming, one after another.

Written by two Spokane Police Department Officers, (Conway five years, Zafrino twenty years and retired as a captain,) The novel begins when SWAT officer Tyler Garrett stops a reckless driver. Garrett is a poster child and model officer for the SPD: good looking, college educated, politically connected, decorated for bravery . . . and black . . . on a mostly white police force.

But, only moments after making the routine traffic stop — something he's done a thousand times — Officer Garrett is ambushed by gunfire from a nearby house. As he dives for cover, the reckless driver turns and pulls a weapon as Garrett returns fire . . . killing the man and chasing the second shooter in the house away. Community support, and the legend, of Tyler Garrett grows. He's publicly hailed as a hero.

Serious problems start to arise when SPD Internal Affairs Investigators determine that the reckless driver was shot in the back, and his gun has disappeared. Overnight the Police Department, City Hall, local news and even the national news media are looking into just what happened that night as the whole country focuses on police brutality and with racial roles reversed, Tyler Garrett's case is at the center of attention.

With time running out, Garrett has to take matters into his own hands, as he tries to find the other shooter and clear his name, before the stunning and shattering conclusion that will leave you shaking your head and wishing for more!

The Olive Jar by Carol Olsen LaMonda Google It

You can find almost anything on the internet. I rarely use a cookbook. When I can type in what I want, I have a dozen recipes for cranberry nut bread.

A conversation at an Italian Restaurant had me researching Billabong because that was the T-shirt my granddaughter was wearing. I think it's an Australian word, I said as I typed it into Safari. Sure enough, it was. It means dead river.

Every day we rely on a few keystrokes to find information that has done away with dictionaries, encyclopedias, cookbooks, telephone directories, and the Dewey Decimal System. The world of information can be stored on our phone in our pocket or purse.

How I would have loved to have this word processing power when I was typing and retyping term papers in college. How I longed for cut and paste and delete as I proofread what I had typed. Did white-out go out of business? Who could have imagined?

However, and this is a big however, we pay dearly for the right to browse and search. Thanks to cookies and algorithms, our phone and computers can search us as well and pitch their ads. The word Algorithms scares me because it sounds so mathematical. The first part of the word sounds like algebra which has terrorized me since high school. The middle of the word sounds like an angry growl, and the ending sounds like a lisp.

These algorithms enable the internet to push relevant information to us based on our searches. Alexa tells Twitter who tells FaceBook who passes on the information to

The FamilyMemoir, PROSILIO...

... in Greek means "Toward the Sun," was written by Carol Olsen LaMonda. Carol writes the column "The Olive Jar" for Ye Olde Tri-Valley Townsman. This local author has been busy guesting at book clubs who have chosen this local memoir as their book choice.

Feel the warmth of Prosilio as you read Carol's memoirs cuddled up in your favorite chair. It also makes a great gift! Prosilio is available at Amazon or Barnes and Noble on-line as a soft or hard cover or as a downloadable e-book for Nook or Kindle. Go to: <http://amazon.com> or <http://barnesandnoble.com> and type in Prosilio in the search to order your copy of Prosilio

Amazon. Seriously, search for something you really do not want like Leprosy and see what happens. A family member was teasing me about my hearing (or lack of it) and now my newsfeed is a parade of hearing aids.

Emails are the new spam or junk that used to clog our mailboxes with paper. However, emails and texts enable us to connect to others so easily. Along with the ease of communication comes the baggage of ads and scams.

I have not tread onto the path of AI, Artificial Intelligence yet. I was still teaching on the cusp of iPhones and have seen the technology increase by such leaps and bounds that it has me watching it like an insidious slinky that keeps going without a destination.

Between the Bookends

Heading out on the open road? Stop at the DPL first!

By Lisa Carroll

GRAHAMSVILLE-Every library has a story; ours just happens to be a love story. One passed down through the generations, starting with the original construction to the massive undertaking of our expansion, to our current improvements. Passion for our library is evident with every lobby stone laid by our communities' generosity, every volunteer who donates their time, materials and knowledge, and through every interaction our staff have with our patrons.

And when you come here, as the first stop of the RCLS Road Trip or the last, you will be immersed in that story and the beautiful surroundings our locale has to offer. The Ramapo Catskill Library System (RCLS) has kicked off their summer road trip now through September 8.

Interested participants and their families are asked to stop at their local library (that's us!) to pick up the map and starting materials. Then, travel through Sullivan, Ulster, Orange and Rockland counties, visiting the 47 libraries that make up RCLS, to collect stickers and prizes along the way. RCLS is asking participants to follow on Facebook and Twitter using @goRCLS for road trip tips and to share pictures and post using #RCLSRoadTrip.

In other news:

Visit our children's floor to see our new books-we've got quite the collections growing-including two, the 2023 Caldecott Medal Winner picture book, Hot Dog by Doug Salati and juvenile fiction 2023 Newberry Medal winner, Freewater by Amina Loqman-Dawson. The two were presented to our library during the Ruth Scully Awards held at the Tri Valley Elementary School June 16. In addition, we have started our collection of Wonderbooks-a combination print/audio book that allows readers to listen to the story as they read. DPL patrons can choose from the six in our collection, thanks to a generous grant by Stewarts!

Our year-long collaboration with the Tri Valley CSD Pre-K program culminated with the UPK graduation June 21. It was an honor to take part in the celebrations! Every year, DPL staff host two eight-week long programs at the school, one in the fall and the other in the spring, sharing their own passion for books and reading, along with felt stories. During the programs, children are encouraged to check out books staff has brought along weekly.

This Spring we launched a new chess club, in big part thanks to our resident chess expert, Mr. Eusi Rodney, who taught skills to the novice and polished moves with the masters. Friendly games were held for those who wished to learn, practice and just share in the fun. We will continue the club in August for Tri Valley residents grades three and up.

And our Friday Book Club is always looking for new adult members. They meet on the first Friday of the month. The new book, The Great Alone by Kristin Hannah, will be distributed July 7.

This month's staff pick is brought to you by Interim Director Mikki Greene.

While Time Remains by Yeonmi Park.

Park and her mother escaped North Korea after her older sister defected into China. At the suggestion of a (unbeknownst to them) human trafficker, both Yeonmi and her mother were smuggled into China, and then sold into slavery. She eventually makes it to the United States and her story unfolds from there. I remember seeing her speak on Facebook in a traditional pink hanbok outfit about her native North Korea and her experiences as its' citizen. She writes in her book that she decided not to read from her intended speech and go rogue. At one point, she broke into tears, and me as well, as she spoke of the horrors observed. Upon finishing the book, you can't help but be ever grateful for the life we are given here in the US. This is Park's second book, her first is In Order to Live, which I will read when I recover from this one. □

Over in Narrowsburg at the Tusten Theatre at 7 pm, Delaware Valley Arts Alliance presents Good Medicine, an interactive satire on the American medicine show through the centuries. (The show runs again, Saturday at 7 pm). Also at 7 pm, Big Time Rush brings their Can't Get Enough Tour to Bethel Woods. At 7:30 pm, go see Harrison Ford in Indiana Jones and the Dial of Destiny at the Hurleyville Performing Arts Centre Cinema. For other show times click here. Then at 8 pm, Alyssa takes the stage at Cabernet Frank's. Check out some live music this weekend at 17 West Brewery-Albi Beluli plays on Friday from 6-9 pm, and Saturday BJ Hendrickson from 5-8 pm.

It's time for the annual Wurtsboro Street Fair on Saturday. From noon to 5 pm, enjoy live music, food, games, and shopping. Up in Livingston Manor, it's the second Annual Dette Flies Kids Fly Fishing Clinics from 1-4 pm. The Sullivan County Museum in Hurleyville will present Four Plays About Q&As at 2 pm (and again Sunday).

If you want to beat back that case of the Sunday Scaries, all you need is a little Sunday Funday. Start the day at the Neversink River Craft Co-op in Claryville where from 10 am-5 pm they'll be featuring new works of pottery, wooden bowls, cutting bowls, jewelry, paintings, resin art, and more. Next, head to Mountaintdale for Second Sunday Artisan Fair and Farmer's Market from 11 am-3 pm. Time and the Valleys Museum will hold a Grand Opening from 1 to 4 pm of the new exhibit: As the Wheel Turns: Waterpower Industry in the Catskills. At 4 pm, have some mango margaritas and wings and hear The Far Trio at Cabernet Frank's. At 7 pm, the Bradstan Cabaret Series at the Eldred Preserve continues with Steven Brinberg's performance: Simply Barbra. Counting Crows rounds out the weekend's shows at Bethel Woods with a 7:30 pm pavilion show.

Nature itself is a work of art in our Sullivan Catskills, so do plan to spend some time and explore our great big outdoors (hiking, biking, river trips). Another fun way to be outdoors is to shop in our quaint downtowns and visit our trails, including the Sullivan Catskills Dove Trail, our tribute to the 1969 Woodstock Music and Art Fair. You'll also love touring and tasting our Good Taste Craft Beverage Trail. It's full of award-winning breweries, wineries, cideries, and distilleries. Please drink responsibly and designate a driver.

When hunger hits, our chefs and bakers know exactly what to whip up to fill your belly with Catskill-icious yum! And our farmers are growing and producing the freshest produce, meats, baked goods, flowers, and more at our Sullivan Catskills Farmers Markets. Plan Ahead:

The Sullivan County Dramatic Workshop presents its summer performance of Oliver, the Musical July 14, 15, 16, 21, 22, and 23, at the Rivoli Theatre in South Fallsburg, with Friday and Saturday performances at 8 pm and Sundays at 2 pm.

We're a 90-minute drive from Manhattan and the metro NY-NJ area. Come enjoy our artful diversions in the Sullivan Catskills for summer!

The Scene Too

By Jane Harrison

Welcome to the season of slowing almost to a stop at green lights because you never know who might come barreling through their red light or who might stop in the middle of the intersection to do a Y-turn. Gotta love summer. Tis also the season (this year) of high humidity, heat and air quality alerts. What fun!

And even though this is hard on people like me, with asthma and a 'heart thing', it's been really hard on my elderly diabetic Lefty and his sister. It makes me think about all of you with furry friends and hoping they are faring well.

Flynn Odel Band

With the cooler evening weather allowing for more outside venues, the music scene is really booming. Saturday night I went out to CABERNET FRANK'S in Parksville to see a band I was totally unfamiliar with, THE FLYNN ODEL BAND. There are many things I can count on going to CABERNET FRANK'S, good food, good company and whoever is on stage, they will never disappoint, and this group was no exception.

Their outside area was almost packed, and my friend Rachel and I had to share a picnic table with a gentleman and his son, which turned out to be a blessing in disguise. It didn't take long to realize most everyone had come specifically to see this band. The group itself was large, six members. There were two guitars, a bass, drums, a keyboard and harmonica. They are a classic rock cover band, and they play songs one doesn't often hear.

Vocal special effects apparatus

The lead guitarist had a special 'tube' connected to his microphone, something I haven't seen in a loooong time. It acts like a wah wah pedal for a guitar, but this is specifically for vocal special effects which he used with precision to give validity to tunes like JOE WALSH'S 'ROCKY MOUNTAIN WAY'.

We were treated to BAD COMPANY'S 'ROCK STEADY', 'I CAN'T GO FOR THAT' by HALL AND OATES, and some real blasts from the past with 'HOW LONG HAS THIS BEEN GOING ON' by ACE, and 'TAKING TO THE STREETS' by THE DOOBIE BROTHERS. In fact most of their set list ran in wonderful true classics from the archives.

Back to the gentleman and his son we were sharing the table with. I noticed that they seemed to know a lot of the audience so at one point, I turned to them, told them that I write about live music and asked if they knew this band. They were more than happy to fill me in (and I thank them). Turns out the band hails from the Hunter Lake area and that they are truly a band of brothers some from the Flynn family and some from the Odel family who get together and play music.

This is a really really good band and I'm definitely going to keep them on my radar.

My only regret is I didn't get a chance to talk to the band members themselves. I made the mistake of complimenting someone they brought up for a song and ended up listening to a non-stop monologue that didn't end until the band was going back up. DUDE! If I want to talk to you about your music, I'd like to get a word in edgeways! GEEZ!

There is something going on with the music venues. Almost all are not announcing who is playing until a day or two before and this phenomenon seems to be across the board. So, can I tell you who is where next weekend? No, I can't and I'm sorry about that. My suggestion is to check your social media often before the weekend.

sigh

Stay safe, stay well, and stay cool!

Until next time ☐☐.

Join Domesticities and Big Sky for ☐Shorts & Sweets: Summer Heat☐

YOUNGSVILLE, NY: Summer's here and we're feeling the heat! Domesticities and the Cutting Garden in Youngsville, NY, presents Big Sky Productions in a performance of ☐Shorts & Sweets: Summer Heat,☐ an afternoon of suggestive jokes and short stories.

This adult-only presentation will be offered on Sunday, July 23 at 2 p.m., and will feature New York City actress and director Sharlene Hartman and Big Sky Productions' Artistic Director Carol Montana.

Sharlene Hartman has been acting, singing, dancing, writing and directing for most of her life. It all started out in San Francisco, with a broken collarbone and a lisp. Her credits include Off Broadway, indie films, television, live industrials, nightclubs, commercials, voice acting, skit comedy and rap songs. Her heart truly belongs to the theatre, however, most recently she's been having a love affair with film. Her latest, "Lunch With Leslie," is currently in festivals, receiving numerous awards, including Best Actress and Best Comedy Short. She simply loves creating a character.

Actress, producer, director Carol Montana has a Master's Degree in Dramatic Form and Structure from the University of Connecticut. She has directed over 50 plays for her company Big Sky Productions, as well as for the Sullivan County Dramatic Workshop, Delaware Valley Arts Alliance, Sul-

Magic Cake

- 4 eggs (separate yolks from whites) at room temperature
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup butter, melted
- 3/4 cup of all purpose flour
- 2 cups milk lukewarm
- Powdered sugar for dusting cake

Preheat oven to 325j F. Grease a 8 inch x 8 inch baking dish. Separate eggs and put in mixing bowl. Mix on high until egg whites are stiff. Set aside. In a separate mixing bowl, beat the egg yolks with the sugar until light. Add butter and vanilla extract and continue beating for another minute or two after which you can add the flour and mix it in until fully mixed.

Slowly start adding the milk and beat until everything is well mixed together. Add the egg whites, a third at a time and gently fold them in using a spatula, repeat until all egg whites are folded in. Pour batter into baking dish and bake for 40 to 70 minutes or until the top is lightly golden. The baking time could vary greatly depending on the oven, so take a peek at around 40 minutes and see how it looks.

Sprinkle on some powdered sugar after cake has cooled. Magically, the cake will change into three delicious layers when baked!

An Enhanced and Evolving Sullivan 180

Grants, Volunteer Opportunities, Events and Workshops

A recent statistic from the Trust for America's Health, a Washington DC based non-profit, stated, The United States spends an estimated $3.6 trillion annually on health, less than 3 percent of that spending is directed toward public health and prevention.

Sullivan 180 was struck by this staggering statistic; and with that we have turned our attention, focus and investments to prevention. What better way than focusing on our youth in their schools and in their communities, said Sandra Gerry, Founding Chair.

With this in mind, Sullivan 180 has refined our focus and set our intentions on prevention and empowering a healthier generation.

Sullivan 180 grants and programs will continue to support efforts in Sullivan County to build a healthy community, one degree at a time. Grant applications are now available for healthy community initiatives, community development, beautification in communities and at schools. Volunteer opportunities, workshops, scholarships and internships will be announced soon.

Sullivan 180 will continue to work with our partners and a grassroots network of volunteers to address immediate health concerns, and to offer these grants and resources to promote innovative ways for all residents to live a healthier lifestyle. This encompasses not only physical, but also mental, spiritual, economie, and environmental health. Whether it's increasing access to nutritious food, creating opportunities for physical activity; finding a sense of purpose or building a sense of belonging- these all contribute to a healthy life and a healthy community.

For information about grants or how to get involved email info@sullivan180.org or call 845.295.2680.

Kaaterskill Clove Traffic Alert

From the town of Hunter: Attention all visitors and travelers planning to use Route 23A through the Kaaterskill Clove in Hunter, New York.

The Town of Hunter, in collaboration with New York State Department of Transportation, NYS Department of Environmental Conservation, and our law enforcement partners, have implemented a seasonal parking prohibition along State Route 23A between Palenville and Haines Falls, also known as Kaaterskill Clove. This decision was made in response to numerous previous incidents of severe traffic congestion, illegal parking and limited EMS access. In order to prioritize the health and safety of our residents and visitors, parking regulations were revised and will now be strictly enforced throughout the upcoming summer season.

Beginning this weekend, June 17-18, and continuing throughout the warmer months, parking will be prohibited at the Ice Climber's lot and all smaller lots along State Route 23A in the Kaaterskill Clove. Parking enforcement will take place, and illegally parked vehicles will be ticketed and towed.

To access major scenic attractions such as Kaaterskill Falls and other areas within the Clove, the Kaaterskill Trolley Co. will provide transportation services. The trolley will have multiple stops in Tannersville, Haines Falls, Palenville, and throughout the Clove bringing visitors safely to their destinations. Visitors are also encouraged to park in the Village of Tannersville where there is abundant parking, and ride the trolley to their destination either in the Clove or the trails near North South Lake Campground.

Alternatively, visitors can access Kaaterskill Falls via North/South Lake Campground, the KRT trail via the Mountain Top Historical Society, and other access points near North Lake Road. These trail access points feature parking and offer an alternative route to reach Kaaterskill Falls and the many scenic trails in the area.

Please take note of these restrictions and plan your visit accordingly. Our primary goal is to ensure a safer and more enjoyable experience for every visitor while preserving the natural beauty of our cherished area. As we welcome you to our town and invite you to discover all it has to offer, it is vital that we prioritize safety, responsible access, and the conservation of our delicate natural resources.

Join Domesticities and Big Sky for ☐Shorts & Sweets: Summer Heat☐

YOUNGSVILLE, NY: Summer's here and we're feeling the heat! Domesticities and the Cutting Garden in Youngsville, NY, presents Big Sky Productions in a performance of ☐Shorts & Sweets: Summer Heat,☐ an afternoon of suggestive jokes and short stories. This adult-only presentation will be offered on Sunday, July 23 at 2 p.m., and will feature New York City actress and director Sharlene Hartman and Big Sky Productions' Artistic Director Carol Montana.

Sharlene Hartman

Sharlene Hartman has been acting, singing, dancing, writing and directing for most of her life. It all started out in San Francisco, with a broken collarbone and a lisp. Her credits include Off Broadway, indie films, television, live industrials, nightclubs, commercials, voice acting, skit comedy and rap songs. Her heart truly belongs to the theatre, however, most recently she's been having a love affair with film. Her latest, "Lunch With Leslie," is currently in festivals, receiving numerous awards, including Best Actress and Best Comedy Short. She simply loves creating a character.

Carol Montana

Actress, producer, director Carol Montana has a Master's Degree in Dramatic Form and Structure from the University of Connecticut. She has directed over 50 plays for her company Big Sky Productions, as well as for the Sullivan County Dramatic Workshop, Delaware Valley Arts Alliance, Sullivan Performing Arts and Sullivan County Community College. Carol's current area of concentration, besides ☐Shorts & Sweets☐ is Murder Mystery Dinner Theatre produced in cooperation with the Greater Liberty Chamber of Commerce.

Domesticities & the Cutting Garden is located at 4055 State Route 52, Youngsville, NY. There is no charge for admission and refreshments will be served. Audience members may make a freewill offering for the Sullivan County SPCA.

For additional information, call Domesticities at 845-482-3333 or Big Sky Productions at 845-985-7783.

Attention all campers! July is a hot month! In more ways than one. Here's your trivia and theatrical update:

The next Trivia Night at The Sullivan House is next week, Wednesday, July 12! 7pm, as usual, at The Sullivan House Bar and Grill. 544 Wurtsboro Mountain Road, Wurtsboro, NY (<https://sullivan-house-bar-grill.business.site/>)

This one's Character Trivia, so it's a game and a bit of a show.

The next Trivia Night at The Tango Cafe will be the usual third Thursday, i.e., Thursday, July 20th! 7pm go time. Seating begins at 6:30pm. Pre-registration is highly recommended to ensure your team gets a table. Reservations can be made at tangocafe@hacny.org or 845-520-5453 (see, also, attached flyer - these will give you some hints as to the evening's themes)

This one's a bit more nerdy but, then, so am I.

Both evenings are free. Food and drink available and advised.

THEN, July 28-30, at the Delaware Valley Opera Center in Lake Huntington, the Premiere of the play WE adapted and directed by River Rep's Artistic Director, Christopher Peditto (and featuring, among others, yours truly). It's based on the dystopic classic by Yevgeny Zamyatin. It's going to be very cool! Please check it out. (poster attached) delawarevalley-opera.com or riverrep.org

First, go to the volunteer page of our website, <https://www.rosendalestreetfestival.org/volunteer/>

You will be directed to complete our volunteer form. Once that form is submitted, you should get an email that will lead you to this schedule spreadsheet and use the dropdown menus to select your shifts. (This step is the most important part to get you signed up.)

Gillibrand, Ceagkues Introduce Bill to Help Small Farm Access Federal Resources

WASHINGTON, D.C. - U.S. Senator Kirsten Gillibrand joined 9 of her Senate colleagues to introduce the Small Farm Conservation Act, legislation that would help small farms access federal conservation programs delivered through the U.S. Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP). EQIP helps farmers improve soil health, water quality, and air quality; protect against drought and weather volatility; and conserve ground and surface water. Small farmers often have difficulty taking advantage of this program because of complex application processes and smaller payments compared to larger operations. The Small Farm Conservation Act would create a new subprogram in EQIP dedicated to making sure that small farmers can access the same financial and technical assistance as their larger counterparts.

□USDA conservation programs like EQIP are vital to help New York producers implement sustainable and regenerative agriculture practices on their land,□ said Senator Gillibrand. □Burdensome application processes and inequitable assessment of applications have long been barriers for small and beginning farmers' ability to access EQIP funding and support. The Small Farm Conservation Act would reduce these barriers and ensure that New York's small and beginning farmers have access to the funding and technical assistance they need. □

Specifically, the Small Farm Conservation Act would:

1. Create a subprogram within EQIP tailored to support small farms and ranches;
 2. Establish a national subprogram coordinator and one in each State;
 3. Streamline the application and approval processes for small farmers and ranches;
 4. Create a bonus payment for farms under 50 acres employing soil health practices;
 5. Allow small farms to enroll on a continuous basis instead of waiting for the annual ranking period; and
 6. Require the Natural Resources Conservation Service to train field staff on conservation tailored for small-scale agriculture and to conduct outreach to small-scale farmers and ranchers.
- The Small Farm Conservation Act is additionally cosponsored by Senators Michael Bennet (D-CO), Ben Ray Lujan (D-NM), Sherrod Brown (D-OH), Martin Heinrich (D-NM), Ron Wyden (D-OR), Angus King (I-ME), Bernie Sanders (I-VT), Jack Reed (D-RI), and John Fetterman (D-PA).

More information about the USDA's Environmental Quality Incentives Program is available here <https://www.nrcs.usda.gov/programs-initiatives/eqip-environmental-quality-incentives>

Governor Hochul Announces $3.5 Million in Available Funding for 13 New Certified Community Behavioral Health Clinics

Clinics Provide 24-hour Behavioral Health Services Daily, Provided to New Yorkers in Need Regardless of Income

Governor Kathy Hochul today announced that the New York State Office of Mental Health and the Office of Addiction Services and Supports have made $3.5 million available for start-up grants to develop 13 new Certified Community Behavioral Health Clinics, 24-hour centers that provide comprehensive services for those requiring behavioral health support, specifically coordination care across behavioral, physical health, and social service systems. Of the 13 clinics, six will be located in New York City, and seven in other regions throughout New York State.

"My administration is committed to creating a robust and effective mental health care system that works for every New Yorker," Governor Hochul said. "Through the development of Certified Community Behavioral Health Clinics, we are providing comprehensive wrap-around care to our most vulnerable New Yorkers, helping ensure no one is left behind."

Governor Hochul has proposed a comprehensive reform plan for New York's mental health care system, including $60 million in capital and $121.6 million in operating funding to dramatically expand outpatient services. Central to this, the development of the Certified Community Behavioral Health Clinics (CCBHC)'s represents the first phase of a two-year expansion plan, which will triple the number of CCBHCs statewide from 13 to 39 by July 2025. CCBHCs serve children, adolescents, adults, and older adults experiencing mental health disorders, substance use disorders, or both, including individuals with co-occurring intellectual and/or developmental disabilities. Services are provided regardless of ability to pay, or county or city location of residence.

New York State Office of Mental Health Commissioner Dr. Ann Sullivan said, "CCBHCs make it easier to get behavioral healthcare and can help people who don't need inpatient care to avoid hospitalization. In addition to mental health care, they offer treatment for substance use disorder as well as screening and referral for physical health care services. Tripling the number of CCBHCs across the State is an important component in Governor Hochul's comprehensive plan to strengthen our mental healthcare system."

New York State Office of Addiction Services and Supports Commissioner Chinazo Cunningham said, "CCBHCs serve a vital role in helping people access comprehensive health care, including treatment for substance use disorders, by providing a wide range of coordinated services designed to support their overall health. We are grateful for the opportunity to work with the Office of Mental Health on this important effort to support Governor Hochul's vision, and help more people receive the care they need to address substance use and mental health disorders." CCBHCs are required to provide a comprehensive array of behavioral health services to assist people who are transitioning from one level of care to another and help them to navigate the behavioral healthcare system across multiple providers. This requires that they establish strong communication protocols and partnerships with community-based partners.

CCBHCs are required to provide a comprehensive array of behavioral health services to assist people who are transitioning from one level of care to another and help them to navigate the behavioral healthcare system across multiple providers. This requires that they establish strong communication protocols and partnerships with community-based partners.

The CCBHC model was established by Congress via the Protecting Access to Medicare Act of 2014. In 2017, thirteen providers throughout NYS implemented the program model under New York State's demonstration program. CCBHC's are required to directly provide or contract for certain services, including, but not limited to:

- o Crisis mental health services including 24-hour mobile crisis teams, emergency crisis intervention, and crisis stabilization;
- o Screening, assessment, and diagnosis including risk assessment;

CONSUMER ALERT:
Attorney General James Warns
Against Price Gouging of Essential Goods in Aftermath of Devastating Storms Across New York
AG James Encourages New Yorkers to Report
Price Gouging of Essential Items to Her Office

NEW YORK - New York Attorney General Letitia James today issued a consumer alert warning against price gouging of essential goods in the aftermath of storms that caused flash flooding, power outages, and significant damages in the Hudson Valley, Western New York, and the Capital Region. A state of emergency has been declared in counties impacted by the heavy storms. New York's price gouging statute prevents businesses from taking advantage of consumers by selling essential goods or services at an excessively higher price during market disruptions or emergencies. Attorney General James urges New Yorkers who see higher prices on essential goods like water, batteries, or generators to report the issue to her office.

□ Strong storms have caused significant damage across the state and families shouldn't have to worry about price gouging as they stock up on essential supplies, □ said Attorney General James. □ That is why I am sending a clear warning to businesses that they cannot use this as an opportunity to raise prices on essential items. I urge New Yorkers who see higher prices on essential goods to report it to my office immediately. New Yorkers impacted by the storms should also follow local guidance to stay safe. □

New York law prohibits businesses from taking unfair advantage of consumers by selling goods or services that are vital to health, safety, or welfare for an unconscionably excessive price during emergencies. The price gouging statute covers New York state vendors, retailers, and suppliers, and includes essential goods and services that are necessary for the health, safety, and welfare of consumers or the general public. These goods and services include food, water, gasoline, generators, batteries, flashlights, hotel lodging, and transportation options.

When reporting price gouging to the Office of the Attorney General (OAG), consumers should:

- o Report the specific increased prices, dates, and places that they saw the increased prices; and,
- o Provide copies of their sales receipts and photos of the advertised prices, if available.

New Yorkers should report potential concerns about price gouging to OAG at: <https://formsnym.ag.ny.gov/OAGOnlineSubmissionForm/faces/OAGPGCHome.jsessionid=FcVA2VWYgk0YvH87F2KihXbVvn2h54pJDeIOlpHueSCzWmR3Zx2!-1455678843>

A Repair Cafe is a free community event. You bring your broken but beloved items and together with volunteer repair coaches, WE FIX THEM! People bring all kinds of things to a repair cafe: clocks and other mechanical items; chairs, frames, and other wooden items; electrical items and small appliances; digital devices; clothing and textiles; dolls, stuffed animals, and toys, tools in need of sharpening; jewelry and watches; and so much more! Most items get fixed, and even when they don't - we have a good time trying!

We are looking for "Repair Coaches" to guide people in fixing all kinds of things. Repair coaches bring their own tools and supplies and offer repairs at no cost. If you would like to volunteer, the commitment can be on a per-event basis.

The MainStage at SHADOWLAND STAGES

This heartfelt review tells the true story of the country music legend's unlikely friendship with a fan, Louise Seger, cemented by years of letter-writing. Accompanied by the beloved hits 'Walkin' After Midnight', 'I Fall to Pieces', 'Crazy', and many more, the housewife and the star share the letters and homespun stories of laughter and tears that brought them together.

After two decades, SHADOWLAND is thrilled to bring back this popular, full-hearted musical.

Beekeeping Curiosity

For Adults & Families

at the Daniel Pierce Library

Saturday, July 22, 2023 at 10 a.m.

Enter the fascinating world of the honey bee! During this one hour family friendly engagement you will explore the wonderful world of our pollinator friends. Bill Boyle from Riverbend Honey will talk about some of the biggest problems facing bees today. How scientists and hobbyists are working together to help bee colonies thrive. So what's the buzz...What's in the hive? What are worker, foraging, nurse, robber bees, and of course, "God save the Queen"? Where do bees spend the winter? What nectar do bees collect? Where does honey and wax come from? What is pollen and propolis? What's in the hive and how does a beekeeper work in it to care for the bees and collect honey?

Registration is open to Tri-Valley residents. Advanced online registration is required at www.danielpiercelibrary.org

DVAA's 33rd Annual RIVERFEST

(From Pg. 38)

LIVE MUSIC - 11 AM and 2 PM

The Riverfest Main Stage will be hopping throughout the day with exceptional live performances. Enjoy a morning of world music with Madřka starting at 11 AM. This band takes listeners on a lively journey across borders and centuries with their blend of traditional Eastern European music.

Later in the day, prepare to groove to the infectious beats of Hollywood Herb & The 7eam beginning at 2 PM. This dynamic rap, rock, and pop band from the Hudson Valley calls on influences such as The Beatles, Lil Wayne, Lupe Fiasco, and Big Daddy Kane. Audiences will be dancing in the street as The 7eam offers a unique blend of musical styles that bridges genres and captivates audiences of all ages.

STREET THEATRE - 12:45 PM

Returning to Riverfest will be ensemble members of Farm Arts Collective, who will lead an annual processional through Main Street, featuring excerpts from their celebrated environmental-focused theatre production the Dream On the Farm Cycle. New for this year, DVAA is excited to collaborate with Tusten Social and the Tusten Youth Commission as they present "River Stories" featuring local youth who have created short performances inspired by original Riverfest posters created by local artists. The kids take center stage with sketches they have written, staged and star in on the Riverfest Main Stage.

POSTER ART AUCTION - 1 PM

One of the highlights of Riverfest is the highly anticipated Riverfest Poster Auction, which takes place at 1 pm on the main stage. This auction features nearly 50 original, one-of-a-kind posters created by talented local artists.

Preview the auction and learn how to bid on your favorite poster online at delawarevalleyartsalliance.org/Riverfest

Posters will also be preview-able in DVAA's gallery window and storefronts along Main Street from July 14 - July 22.

MAKERS' MARKET - ALL DAY

Featuring over 40 Artisan Market Booths, this year's Riverfest will showcase a diverse range of handcrafted treasures including locally made paintings, photography, prints, hand-made crafts, jewelry, clothing, home decor, and body care products, and more!

Highlights include Tintype photographer Rebecca Daniels who will be offering portrait photography on site; 'Zines, art prints, and comics by Real Time Ink's Dasha Zibarova, and chainsaw carved sculptures by from Harnett Designs Woodworking.

The Chi Hive will be offering a special pop-up space for kids' fitness activities and demos at their aerial pavilion throughout the day led by Hilary Chapman and Corinna Grunn.

Additionally, Riverfest offers visitors an opportunity to engage with our local environmental and service organizations through informational booths hosted by numerous non-profit organizations.

FOOD TRUCKS - ALL DAY

No Riverfest experience would be complete without indulging in delectable food and refreshing beverages. Festivalgoers can savor a wide range of culinary delights, including classic favorites like Luigi's Italian fare, one of the area's newest food trucks the Bibimbus featuring vegetarian and non-vegetarian Korean foods, and Nikki C's Sea Food, as well as sweet treats like crepes and fruit-infused lemonade will also be available to satisfy every craving. Not to be forgotten are Narrowsburg's renowned eateries who will be open throughout the day, ensuring a delightful dining experience!

SPONSORS

We are thrilled to welcome back JEFF Bank as Riverfest's 2023 Sponsor and WJFF Radio Catskill as our Media Sponsor. Additional support comes from the New York State Council on the Arts, a state agency with support from the Office of the Governor and the New York State Legislature, DVAA's members, our 2023 Business Supporters, and individuals.

So, mark your calendars and join us at Riverfest 2023 on Sunday, July 23rd, from 10 am to 4 pm on Main Street in Narrowsburg, NY. Admission is free, and the event will take place rain or shine. Don't miss the electrifying performances, vibrant art, engaging activities, and mouthwatering food that make Riverfest an unforgettable experience for the whole family.

Fallsburg CSD Hires Lindsay Severino as Director of Student Equity

The Fallsburg Central School District is excited to announce that they have selected Lindsay Severino to serve as their Director of Student Equity.

The newly established position was created to further the district's ongoing commitment of maintaining an inclusive environment and reducing disparities in student outcomes. Ms. Severino will play an instrumental role in advancing current practices regarding student well-being, social-emotional learning, professional development, family and community engagement, and curriculum review.

Ms. Severino will also be overseeing the My Brother's Keeper (MBK) grant program which provides support to keep young people on track as they plan for their future.

Before joining the Fallsburg community, Ms. Severino worked as an educator in her native city of Buffalo, New York for five years. She served as a high school English as a New Language (ENL) teacher, district summer school coordinator, and interim vice principal at Global Concepts Carter School. She is currently pursuing her PhD in Leadership and Policy at Niagara University with an anticipated graduation date of May 2026.

19th Annual Woodstock Volunteers Day

when: Saturday August 19th, 2023

where: In the Mescal Hornbeck Community Center

And on Andy Lee Recreation Field

56 Rock City Road, Woodstock

OUR TOWN'S EXPRESSION OF GRATITUDE TO OUR WONDERFUL VOLUNTEERS.

Volunteer's Day - A Day of Gratitude is a day in which we all remember what is good about our community. Woodstock is the only town in America that has a volunteers' day - a day of gratitude like this one, in which all volunteers both current and retired are celebrated. This event is not a recruitment activity, just a thank you and a demonstration of our community's appreciation. While we are reminded every day of the considerable acts of kindness, personal generosity and bravery that our volunteers offer us on a daily basis, never asking to be thanked, on Volunteers' Day, the volunteers are the Guests of Honor

If you would like to help thank you, that's wonderful!

NICK NEEDS KIDNEY -TYPE O (IN SOME CASES TYPE A BLOOD COULD WORK)

Chronic Kidney Disease (CKD) progresses in stages and, if untreated, can lead to complete loss of kidney function. At CKD stage 5, when both kidneys fail completely, the only options for survival are dialysis or a kidney transplant. Nick is at stage 5.

If interested in donating please contact Westchester Medical Center and speak with a Living Donor Coordinator at 914.493.1990

More about our warrior Nick....

Nick was diagnosed with Tuberous Sclerosis Complex (TSC) at birth. TSC is a neurological disorder that produces seizures, tumors, and lesions that effect the organs of the body and can cause Autism. Nick has been battling with seizures his whole life from infantile spasms to adult grand-mal seizures. May 2019 we heard the worst news that Nick's function was under 10% on both kidneys. Since then Nick has had multiple surgeries so he could get the proper dialysis preformed. Nick goes in center for 4 hours 3 times a week. Not what the sweetest, kindest, 31 year old should be going through.

Nick has such a big heart and is loved by so many in our community. We all want Nick to have the best quality of life and going through dialysis does not provide that quality. We hope and pray a kidney comes to us and that Nick will be able to live a happy and healthy life doing what he loves and that is to bicycle all throughout our town making people smile. Nick is a big part of the community, he takes pride with his volunteer work with the EMS and is the Honorary member of the Monticello Fire Department.

Lets all band together for Nick and help him find a kidney so he can live life to the fullest!

Ulster County Executive Jen Metzger Releases Open Letter to County Residents in Response to False Accusations from Three Former Commissioners

KINGSTON, NY - Ulster County Executive Jen Metzger has released the following open letter to Ulster County residents:

Dear Citizens of Ulster County:

As County Executive, I am appalled and deeply disappointed by the disingenuous and false claims made by three Human Rights Commission members in their resignation letter. Their letter is fundamentally dishonest and contains a number of falsehoods that are easily disproved.

In what I believe is the crux of the matter, these individuals claim that former Commissioner Tyrone Wilson was dismissed for "trivial comments," and that his firing was a "political assassination." In fact, former Commissioner Wilson's insensitive comments about Asians, Jews, LGBTQIA+ people, single mothers, and other groups are a matter of public record and clearly disqualified him from serving as Human Rights Commissioner. It is my view that the authors of this letter are more invested in exacting retribution for former Commissioner Wilson's dismissal than faithfully fulfilling their duties as members of the Human Rights Commission.

The letter alleges that the Commission has been recently padded with those loyal to me. In fact, I have made zero appointments to this Commission. All existing Commission members were appointed by the prior Administration or by the Legislature. The letter claims that Alice Cook was removed from the Commission by me. In fact, Ms. Cook's term expired last year, and former County Executive Pat Ryan appointed Reverend Gary Fuller as her replacement.

The individuals claim that I appointed Reverend Fuller as Chair using a "legal loophole." In fact, the County Charter clearly grants the County Executive the authority to appoint the chair of the commission, and Reverend Fuller's appointment strengthens the Commission's ability to fulfill its mission. Reverend Fuller has significant prior Board leadership experience as the former Chair of the City of Mount Vernon Board of Ethics. His long history of civic engagement and advocacy work focusing on housing rights is critical at a time when housing rights violations constitute the top category of complaint received by the Human Rights Commission.

The letter's characterization of Acting Commissioner Esi Lewis as having "no qualifications nor passion for human rights" is outrageous. Acting Commissioner Lewis has deep experience working on behalf of marginalized communities, including serving on the New Paltz Police Reform and Reinvention Commission, working for almost a decade as an Assistant District Attorney in the Sex Crimes Bureau of the Kings County District Attorney's Office, and serving as a Staff Attorney at Legal Services of the Hudson Valley on behalf of domestic violence survivors. Acting Commissioner Lewis also founded the Dr. Margaret Wade-Lewis Black History and Cultural Center in New Paltz.

Finally, the letter baselessly accuses Acting Commissioner Lewis of improperly handling a complaint by a County employee due to her allegiance to the County Executive. I cannot comment on the specifics of the case while it is under investigation, but I have full faith in Commissioner Lewis to handle this sensitive situation properly, with professionalism, care, and discretion.

Under the County Charter, the Commission's mission is to amicably resolve complaints, reduce tensions, build consensus, and foster harmony between the various and diverse communities within Ulster County. In order to do so, Commission members should endeavor to serve as models for how to handle sensitive matters with integrity, professionalism, and respect. The work of this Commission is too important to politicize or derail with personal conflict.

I urge the citizens of Ulster County not to be deterred by the baseless accusations of these individuals. The Human Rights Commission stands ready to help members of the public address discrimination and promote a more just and inclusive Ulster County.

Ulster County Executive Jen Metzger Appoints Kevin Lynch as Director of Economic Development

APPOINTMENT IS SUBJECT TO CONFIRMATION BY THE COUNTY LEGISLATURE

KINGSTON, NY - Ulster County Executive Jen Metzger announced today that she has appointed Kevin Lynch as Director of Economic Development, subject to confirmation by the County Legislature. Lynch comes to Ulster County with over 25 years of experience managing business development and public finance, as well as a background in clean technologies-a priority area for the Metzger administration. He has worked in multiple roles for various private equity, corporate finance, government, and nonprofit entities. Lynch most recently served as the Director of Clean Energy for the New Jersey Economic Development Authority (NJEDA), where he oversaw the authority's various financing programs for clean energy, including offshore wind, vehicle electrification, and business loans for clean energy related projects.

"With his strong professional and educational background in public and private finance, clean energy, and planning, Kevin will be a tremendous asset to our economic development efforts as we transition to a sustainable, clean energy economy and seek to capitalize on the new economic opportunities this transition offers," said Ulster County Executive Jen Metzger. "In previous leadership positions Kevin has emphasized teamwork and collaboration, which are core values of this administration, and I am confident that he will bring a can-do spirit and a high standard of professionalism to managing this Department."

"I am very excited about the opportunity to continue the work the department has undertaken to support local business while building a vibrant and inclusive economy. We are in the midst of an economic transition or a 'generational push' that will require the need for clean reliable energy, food security, and agriculture coupled with sustainable communities and job growth. We need to move from aspiration to action and it will be my goal to focus on these areas with our community partners to build a cleaner environment in tandem with a more robust economy for the residents of Ulster County," said Kevin Lynch.

Prior to serving as Director of Clean Energy for NJEDA, Lynch spent a decade as a Vice President of M&T Bank in New York City, leading a Public Finance Investment Banking portfolio that engaged over $200 million in financing for public entities including housing and industrial job development. Lynch also spent five years as the Principal of Amantea Nonwovens LLC, building from the ground up a minority-owned manufacturing venture in Cincinnati which hired and trained 70 employees through a workforce development program. He previously served as a Director at PNC Capital Advisors in Philadelphia and as a Vice President at JP Morgan Chase working in public finance research.

Lynch holds a Master of Science degree in Urban Planning & Environmental Studies from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and a Bachelor of Science degree in Public Policy and Finance from Rochester Institute of Technology. He is a member of the Government Finance Officers Association, Municipal Analysts Group of New York, and the National Federation of Municipal Analysts.

The Biden Crime Family Continues to Evade Justice —Rep Tenney on Kudlow to discuss the Hunter Biden Investigation

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WyR_tamuMHc

The release of IRS whistleblower testimony by the Ways and Means Committee Republicans proves that the Department of Justice repeatedly and deliberately delayed and covered up the investigation into Hunter Biden's financial crimes.

Now, the Delaware US Attorney tasked with investigating the president's son has ignored requests by the House Judiciary Committee to share any correspondence between his office and Attorney General Merrick Garland about Hunter Biden.

I am dedicated to ensuring a fair application of our tax code, even if your last name happens to be 'Biden.' No individual, including President Biden or his son Hunter, should be exempt from the law.

Watch more of my thoughts on this here or at the link above.

Advocating for FEMA Grant in Niagara County

Following the devastating floods in 2017, Niagara County has taken steps to restore Krull Park and mitigate future flooding hazards.

This week the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) awarded a $1.15 million grant to reimburse the County for extraordinary expenses incurred from the severe 2017 shoreline flooding in Krull Park.

I am grateful that the federal government recognized the significance of the flood damage and the extraordinary financial burden the recovery effort has placed on our local governments.

I appreciate FEMA's efforts to help and will continue to work with local governments and our federal agencies to ensure our NY-24 communities have the resources they need and deserve.

The Biden Administration Must End their Silence on Israel's Counterterrorism Campaign

While Israel is engaged in a counterterrorism operation to neutralize Iranian-backed terrorists in Samaria, the Biden administration has remained silent. The Iranian regime is emboldened when the United States stays silent, which is why the United States must continue to be a leader on the world stage in opposing terrorism and the despotic Iranian regime. President Biden, Secretary of State Blinken, and Ambassador Nides must immediately end their silence and make it clear that the United States stands with Israel as it continues its counterterrorism efforts.

It is also critical that the Biden administration recognizes that Iran and Palestinian terror organizations, such as Hamas and Palestinian Islamic Jihad (PIJ), are partners. Not only does Iran provides tens of millions of dollars in funding each year to Palestinian terrorist groups, but it also trains, arms, and feeds intelligence to them. The Biden administration's obvious lust for a new deal with Iran, the world's leading state sponsor of terrorism, has emboldened Palestinian terror organizations and placed an unnecessary strain on our relationship with Israel.

Finally, under President Trump's successful 'Maximum Pressure' campaign, Iran's accessible cash reserves dropped by 96 percent, leaving less money for Iran to fuel terrorism. However, President Biden's weak sanctions enforcement has fueled Palestinian terrorism, as Iran's cash reserves are estimated to have increased twelvefold since President Biden took office. President Biden must restore the 'Maximum Pressure' campaign and make it clear that the United States will not relent until Iran stops its support to all terrorist groups and ends its pursuit of a nuclear weapon.

Remembering Timothy J. Barber

This week marks the three-year anniversary of the passing of Tim Barber. It was just Tim's second day on the job when the temperature hit 93 degrees with a heat index of 95 degrees, and he died from hyperthermia on July 7, 2020, at a work site on the Route 63 Bridge over the Genesee River in Geneseo.

Earlier this year, I introduced the Timothy J. Barber Act, which would require the Department of Labor to study the Occupational Safety and Health Administration's (OSHA) spending on technical support and compliance assistance for heat-related illnesses and recommend ways to increase its effectiveness. Technical support and compliance assistance help small businesses comply with OSHA regulations and defray the costs of compliance. This is just one way we can remember and celebrate the life of Tim Barber while working to make OSHA's spending more effective.

As summer rolls on, I encourage all of my constituents, especially those who work outdoors, to be careful in the heat, drink water, and take rest breaks when necessary. Together, we can honor Tim's life and prevent others from needlessly suffering from hyperthermia.

Governor Hochul Announces Implementation of Federal Measures to Protect Undocumented Workers During Labor Investigations

New York State Department of Labor Establishes New Process Introduced by Biden Administration to Safeguard Undocumented Workers Changes Strengthen Efforts to Hold Unscrupulous Employers Accountable

Governor Kathy Hochul today announced that the New York State Department of Labor has implemented a new process to shield undocumented immigrant workers from retaliation and removal during labor disputes, expanding on the protections implemented earlier this year by the Biden administration. Through an interagency partnership with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, NYSDOL is now working with undocumented workers and their advocates to gain temporary protection from prosecution and potential removal, as well as the ability to work legally in the U.S. if the worker is involved in State NYSDOL investigations. This process of prosecutorial discretion, which under the Biden administration has been expanded to include state agencies, helps to alleviate reluctance to report unscrupulous employers by undocumented workers, who are often threatened with removal or other forms of retaliation.

"This important partnership with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security will not only help to protect the integrity of our labor investigations, but also the safety of vulnerable New York workers," Governor Hochul said. "New York is proud to lead the nation in worker protections, and we will continue to work with our local, state, and federal partners to ensure that all workers enjoy their right to fairness and safety in the workplace - regardless of their immigration status."

Undocumented workers involved in workplace labor investigations by the NYSDOL may submit, or have an advocate or attorney submit on their behalf, a Statement of Interest request to NYSDOL supporting prosecutorial discretion from DHS. The Worker Protection Unit will evaluate the request and render a determination within 30 days. Separately, the worker would need to submit a concurrent filing for deferred action to DHS. Each application is reviewed by DHS and, if approved, the worker may be granted deferred action, which protects them from removal for two years, or longer in the case of ongoing investigations or subsequent payouts from employers. New York State has granted 32 Statements of Interests since the launch of this process, impacting more than 100 workers.

Once a Statement of Interest letter has been accepted by DHS, all workers at a worksite impacted by the investigation are eligible to apply for deferred action. For more information about the process, visit the prosecutorial discretion webpage.

New York State Department of Labor Commissioner Roberta Reardon said, "Fear of retaliation is paralyzing for any worker, but it is especially dreadful for immigrants. At the Department of Labor, we investigate all complaints, regardless of immigration status. We believe that all workers have rights in every workplace across New York State. If any worker is a victim of or a witness to labor violations, please report it to us. We can help."

Senator Kirsten Gillibrand said, "Undocumented immigrants contribute to New York State's economy and deserve to have workplace protections regardless of their immigration status. I support Governor Hochul's efforts to implement safeguards for undocumented workers and hold employers accountable."

Richard Blum, Attorney at the Legal Aid Society said, "The issuance of statements of interest by the New York State Department of Labor is a key step in combatting the threats and pervasive atmosphere of fear that usually accompanies wage theft and other egregious labor practices."

This is the latest in a series of efforts by Governor Hochul to protect and support undocumented residents across New York State, and prevent unscrupulous employers from using removal to evade state labor laws. In May, the Governor called on the federal government to expedite work authorization for asylum seekers. In February, Governor Hochul announced the expansion of the New York State Professional Pathways for High-Skilled Immigrants Program, which helps new Americans find jobs that match their skills and experience. In October 2021, she signed legislation protecting undocumented immigrants from threats to report their immigration status.

NYSDOL's Division of Labor Standards protects all workers, including those who are undocumented or paid off the books. For more information, visit the Division of Labor Standards website. Additionally, NYSDOL's Division of Immigrant Policies and Affairs (DIPA) ensures the Department's services, programs, and protections are available to all workers, including people who work in or move to New York from another country. For more information visit the DIPA webpage.

The Molinaro Memo

Welcome to the Molinaro Memo: catching you up on my latest moves and work for Upstate New York!

Mental Health & Addiction Treatment Roundtable in Binghamton

We are confronting a mental health and substance use crisis in Upstate NY - and across America. That's why, I brought community leaders together in Binghamton to talk about the path forward. This transcends politics, requires we do more together, and I'm going to keep fighting.

Farm Bill Listening Session in Columbia County

I held my second Farm Bill Listening Session in Chatham. I was honored to lead this important session and hear from local farmers, producers, and business owners in our community. As the Farm Bill takes shape, I'm working to ensure Upstate New York's priorities are included.

Successfully Advocated to Get Sullivan County Resources to Fight Drug Trafficking & Addiction

Sullivan County will be designated as a High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area. This is a game changer. It will provide increased federal resources to combat drug trafficking, disrupt criminal networks, and reduce fatal overdoses. I'm proud to have pushed for this long overdue step. We are poised to make a profound difference for Sullivan County.

Breaking Down Barriers for Individuals With Disabilities

I introduced the bipartisan Think DIFFERENTLY About Education Act. My bill empowers parents of children with disabilities to advocate for their child's success in school by ensuring parents know they have the right to bring an advocate to meetings with school administrators.

I also introduced the Think DIFFERENTLY Agriculture Accessibility Act. This bipartisan bill expands federal resources for farmers and farm families with disabilities so they can access support services, assistive technology, and make a living.

Keeping Our Railroads & Communities Safe

I joined Mayor Jared Kraham and City of Binghamton Engineers to inspect the Emma Street Railroad Bridge. Railroad lines cut right through the places where families live, work, and go to school. We can't let what happened in East Palestine, Ohio happen in Binghamton. I'm partnering with the City to identify problem areas and get them fixed.

Fighting to Fix Mail Service Issues in Sullivan County

The U.S. Postal Service is required to notify residents of an impending Post Office closure at least 60 days before shutting down a facility so affected residents are able to voice concerns. Despite this, the Postal Service abruptly closed the Westbrookville Post Office with only one day's notice.

Residents in predominantly Jewish communities in Sullivan County have also been left without mail delivery for months on end. Efforts to address these issues have been ignored.

I am vigorously demanding answers and accountability from the leadership at the U.S. Postal Service. Sullivan County deserves better.

This has been an absolutely heartbreaking time for our community, with floods devastating the region and tragically causing at least one confirmed fatality. My thoughts are with everyone who has been impacted. And a huge thank you to our first responders, who have been working nonstop under very dangerous conditions to keep Hudson Valley families safe.

As response and recovery operations continue I wanted to reach out with some federal resources to make sure you are getting the support you need. The days and months ahead will be difficult, but I will continue working and pushing alongside our partners in local, state, and federal government to deliver relief for Hudson Valley families and begin to rebuild our community. There are a number of safety precautions everyone should take to minimize the risk of injury while the floodwater remains. Here are some key tips:

If you are unable to return to a safe home, the Red Cross has resources to find nearby assistance or an open Red Cross shelter. Additional resources from the Red Cross can be accessed here. The Orange County government's social services can assist Orange County residents and can be contacted here. As we begin to assess the full extent of the damage caused by these floods, there are first steps to take if you find that your home or property has been damaged:

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)'s guide to starting the insurance claims process following a flood can be found here. FEMA and the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) partnered to develop this guide to help homeowners and renters navigate post-flood and mold clean up.

I will continue to work to rapidly mobilize the full power of the federal government to help everyone affected by severe flooding across the Hudson Valley. If you do need assistance with the flood's impact, please know that you can contact my office here on my website or at 845-443-2930.

International Overdose Awareness Day Vigil

A Time to Remember. A Time to Act.

Join us as we raise awareness about overdoses and reduce the stigma of drug-related deaths.

Hear state and local leaders talk about what is being done to battle the opioid crisis in our community. Open your hearts as families share their stories of loved ones who lost their battle with substance use. Remember those who have passed and celebrate those in recovery. Meet organizations and learn about resources created to face this crisis head on.

We will be joined by local first responders, the Sullivan County Choir, an interpretive dance performance and bag pipers in front of the Sullivan County courthouse that will be lit purple to symbolize overdose awareness.

This event is brought to you by a community of organizations working together to end the opioid epidemic in Sullivan County.

Thursday • August 31, 2023
7pm at the Sullivan County
Courthouse Lawn,
414 Broadway, Monticello

Rain date: Friday, Sept. 1

RANDOM HARVEST

(1942 / Mystery/Romantic/Drama
/ 2 hrs. 05 min. / Rating - NR)

ONE OF THE VERY! VERY! BEST!

The time — 1918 post WWI. The place — an Army mental hospital in England. A "Shell Shocked" (Post Traumatic) Lieutenant has no memory of his past or who he is. He sits awaiting help. Seeing a chance to escape he leaves and is taken in by a female singer — a beautiful human being (Greer Garson) both spiritually and physically. They fall madly in love and they have a child.

After three years he is beginning to achieve success as a newspaper columnist. Involved in an accident— he is hit by a car and he loses his new memories, including all memory of his wife and child. His wife searches relentlessly to find him. She is the Goddess —so much in love, that her love won't allow her to give up no matter the task.

Directed by Mervyn LeRoy Screenplay by Arthur Wimperis, George Froeschel, Claudine West. Based on the 1941 best seller Random Harvest, by James Hilton, Produced by Sidney Franklin, Starring Ronald Colman, Greer Garson, Philip Dorn, Susan Peters Cinematography

The film was an instant commercial success and was nominated for seven Academy Awards, including Best Actor for Colman; Best Supporting Actress for Susan Peters; Best Director for Mervyn LeRoy and Best Picture. Garson, whose performance was well-received, was ineligible for the Academy Award for Best Actress as she had already been nominated that year for her role in Mrs. Miniver. I think this is outrageous. Greer Garson did the part, and let me tell you, she did the part and should have had, at the very least, the chance to be considered. (Contd. Pg. 79)

Movie Trivia Question: Who played the coach in The Prince of Tides?

Ans to last week's question: False. (It was a Sinatra flick)

Brothers Karamazov

(1958 / NR / CC / 4.3 out of 5 stars / $1.99 to rent / $5.99 to buy Prime Video) Directed by: Richard Brooks Starring: Yul Brynner, Maria Schell, Claire Bloom and Lee J. Cobb.

This is the story based on Fyodor Dostoevsky's 1880 novel of □mans inhumanity to man□ during the 1870's in Russia.

It shows the compassion that we all need to exhibit today. The film marks the frailties of the human condition concerning love, passion, jealousy, hate, greed, betrayals, murder, religions, money, no money, God, no God, good, evil, p ropaganda for murder of innocents during the Russian monarchy of Tsar Alexander the II. The propganda was driven by the need to have an excuse for putting epileptics to death. Many believed that epileptics were possessed by demons. However, aside from this point, the film is a masterpiece of writing, acting, and filming.

Marilyn Monroe was rumored to be in negotiations to play the role of Grushenka, but several conflicting accounts arose around the time the film entered production.
